Last Will and Testament

TO FATHER GRADY
We leave a written request for reservation in his brand new hospital.

TO FATHER McCARTHY
We leave a book that he and the author will agree upon in everything.

TO FATHER MANNION
We leave a bottle of tranquilizers to bring to the games with him.

TO FATHER DREW
We leave a freshman class that will have an innate knowledge of the previous Sunday's gospel.

TO SISTER ELAINE
We leave the hope that Father Grady will install a T.V. Public Address system (to keep an eye on the students).

TO SISTER ANN
We leave a life-time subscription to the Daily News for her consumer class.

TO SISTER ANITA
We leave a pile of sawdust from the installation of her brand new clothes closet.

TO MR. ZELTVAY
We leave the hope that his future freshmen will not blow up the Science class.

TO MISS ZAZZARA
We leave a part in MacBeth in the next revival of the motion picture.

TO MR. PALLINO
We leave a good joke book for his History class.

TO MISS CUIDERA
We leave our many aches and pains as a result of our gym exercises.

TO MR. HERR
We leave a rear view mirror to manipulate while writing on the board.

TO MISS ZYMEK
We leave, never more to return and torment her with our imaginary aches and pains.

TO MR. MURPHY
We leave a sigh of relief that he doesn't have to coach the girls' basketball team.

TO HIRAM
We leave a cigar that burns from September to June.

TO THE JUNIORS
We leave a book entitled "One Thousand Ways to Make Money in Your Senior Year."

TO THE SOPHOMORES
We leave those many sleepless nights worrying over Steno and Typing.

TO THE FRESHMEN
We leave the hope of someday becoming seniors.

TO SAINT JAMES
Our sincere thanks for four happy years.

FORUM
Mary Gallacher

Through our enrollment in the Seton Forensic League, which is under the direction of the Sisters of Charity of the College of Saint Elizabeth, we were privileged to compete in the Oratorical Declamation, the Forum, and the Debates.

In November St. James was represented when Judith Krebs, as the guest of St. Aloysius High School, Jersey City, gave an oration. On February 4 we were host to seven other schools in the annual Forum. Mary Gallacher spoke on Peace and Unity—The Only Hope of Mankind. Mary LeMehaute, Jean Mohren, Joan Pallen, and Christine Russo displayed their talents in the annual debates held in St. Aloysius High School, Jersey City.

The purpose of the League is to foster interest in current events and to enable the participants to grow in poise and in oratorical ability.

Tom offers a suggestion to Claire and Bob.

We wish to extend our deepest appreciation and sincere thanks to Sister Elaine Marie, our principal, to our Yearbook Moderator, Miss Lillian Zazzara, and to our Business Manager, Sister Anne Magdalene, who gave us their time and energy to help us overcome many obstacles.

We would also like to express our gratitude to the Edward Martin Studios, who are responsible for the photography; and to the Rae Publishing Company for the printing and issuing of this yearbook.

What do you think about this?

The success of this book is due not only to the work of the yearbook staff but also to the work of the entire senior class. Because of their co-operation and assistance, the 1958 Pelican is a book we shall always cherish.

COMMENCEMENT

As this chapter of our life comes to an end, we thank God for protecting us all through our lives, for His guidance in all our actions, for giving us our dear parents, our devoted teachers, and for all the wonderful experiences of our never-to-be-forgotten high school years.

As we close the pages of this book, we end the years spent at St. James. But with this closing a new life stretches ahead of us, and with it is a new understanding of our spiritual and worldly duties—our love of God and our neighbor. We pray that God will help us remember the principles we hold so dear.

Always in our hearts and always on our lips will be these words—

Saint James High
We love thee,
Alma Mater dear,

Raise we now our chorus
Swelling loud and clear.

Wider still and wider,
Shall thy bounds be set

God, Who gave thee beauty
Make thee fairer yet.

—Our Alma Mater
